Activities:

Activity 2

1. Marco can't pay his rent because he spends so much money with other students and friends.
2. He is in a difficult situation because he can't afford his rent for it's "way of living". He also celebrated a party and broke a lamp that must be paid too.
3. They propose two things. First one is to speak with the flat owners and see if they can give Marco more time to pay that broken lamp. Second one is try to convince Marco to pay his rent on debit.

1. The problem is, he's been spending too much money.
2. Well, the way to sort it out, surely, is to tell him to get a loan.
3. I'm not sure it's the right thing to do, Carol.
4. The trouble is, it's the third time he's run out of money.
5. He can't go on like that.
6. One way of dealing with this could be to look at his weekly expenses.
8. Well, there's an obvious solution.
9. We could talk to the owner of the flat.
